Announcements.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce M. R. SMITH, of St. Francois county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Thirteenth Congressional District of Missouri—subject to the action of the primary election in said district, May 21, 1904.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce FRANK R. DEARING, of Jefferson county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Twenty-First Judicial Circuit of Missouri.

THE Folkites controlled the committee in Cape county and provided to vote on none of the State officers at the primary except Governor. Why not vote on all the State officers at the primary, Bro. McGuire?

It is said that Jas. G. Berkley, of Jefferson county, and Ed. T. Eversole, of Washington county, are being urged to enter the fight against Judge Dearing for this circuit. We are not advised as to the situation elsewhere, but we believe Judge Dearing is certain to have the delegation from this county.

It is the "Rev." attached to the secular signature to give it weight that I object to. In its proper place the "Rev." stands for righteousness; in the pit of partisan politics it justly has no place, and the minister who employs it in behalf of one or to discredit another candidate either lacks judgment or is insincere in his profession.

JUDGE PARKER, of New York, in several particulars, fails to represent the views of Western Democrats, and is not the candidate for President whom I would select as nominee if I were arbiter of the party. But he supported loyally our candidates in 1896 and 1900, and should he be nominated this year no Democrat will stultify himself in standing up for him.

It is stated that Folk says he has no slate for the State ticket. Why not? If he is the accepted Regenerator and Savior of the Democratic party in Missouri, let the whole ticket be Folk, and let no man go on it who is not ready to fall down and worship the beloved head. No half-way measures! If the Democratic party is corrupt; if there is a corrupt machine at Jefferson City, all the members of the present administration must be taken as forming its component parts. No one member of the administration has charged another member with wrong-doing; ergo, they are all tarred with the same filth; if one is a thief they are all thieves—Dockery, Cook, Allen, Seibert, Crow, et al.—for if there were one honest member he would be holding the alleged corrupt ones up to merited scorn. No, gentlemen! If you are going to clean house, clean house! No dusting of the sitting-room while the kitchen is left reeking in filth. Go over the whole house, from cellar to garret! Only—and this by way of disinterested advice—leave a stove or two ready standing. The frosts of November sometimes nip mighty hard.

OUR brother, of the Lead Belt News must be disciplined. He throws contumely on the Holler-Than-Thou crowd in a manner too utterly utter. Think of his making charges like these against the sanctified Apostles of Righteousness, and then go and weep bitter tears that the broad phylactery fellows are not held immune from unregenerate assault. When Joey gets in we'll make high treason of such utterances: "Comparing Farmington and Flat River the latter place is to be congratulated upon at least two subjects. First and foremost we have none of the 'colored brethren,' and second, Flat River is, to a great extent, free from factional fights. Both these evils were shown up in good shape in Farmington last Tuesday at the city election. In one ward the old factional spirit cropped out in a most disagreeable manner. Editor Talbert of the Progress was a candidate for alderman, and it is said that because he had the nerve to support Harry B. Hawes for Governor the Folk crowd brought out F. M. Carter to oppose Talbert. And the gang tried with might and main to defeat the editor candidate; even, it is said, using whiskey and money freely and openly in the purchase of negro votes for Carter. At least one negro got a suit of clothes for his vote, and the assertion was quite freely made that the colored population was offered as high as five dollars a head for their votes. Talk about Hawes 'Indians' in St. Louis, they were not in it with Folk 'negroes' in Farmington. However, Mr. Talbert's friends rallied to his support and elected him by a majority of ten votes."

THE Charleston Enterprise, aping the Globe-Democrat, is very caustic in its remarks against "the machine." All the same, after the nominations are made, "the machine" will be in demand by the fellows who are now howling loudly against it. If "the machine," which gives organized force to the party, and directs that force against the common enemy, had meddled between the candidates for nomination to the various offices, there would have been just cause for complaint; but it did no such thing. As for the present incumbents of State offices, no one is so conservative as a candidate for re-nomination, and excepting Gov. Dockery, who cannot succeed himself under the law, every member of the present administration is a candidate for re-election. Not one of them took part for or against any of the various candidates for governor. They had their own wood to saw, and took no note of their neighbors' wood-piles. But either the lying claim of Folk that the administration was corrupt had to be dropped, or mud must be hurled upon all the men at present in office. So the Holy Crusade of Reform and Regeneration was inaugurated and soon its ranks knew the presence of all who had a past or present political grievance. The cry of "boddler!" was raised against all who dared insist that the half-dozen men who were charged with crime should be left to the law and the courts; that the present and past administrations had been and were honest and faithful in their trusts; that the Democratic party was not a den of thieves. "Thief!" and "Boddler!" were made the watchwords of the Folk promoters, and under these signs they must go forth to conquer, or fail in their selfish aspirations. So they are plastering the whole Democratic household with a foulness such as, if it did exist, must bar any honest man from asking honor at its dirty hands.

Save the Loved Ones!

Mrs. Mary A. Vliet, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horehound Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine, and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Graniteville Items.

The prospect for fruit this year is very poor. Farmers will be late with their crops this year.

The Junior League here is progressing nicely.

Mr. Benj. Kidd is very poorly at this writing.

The Graniteville school will close Friday, the 22d.

Leonard Gaston left last Wednesday for Wisconsin.

Willie Edmonds returned home Monday, the 11th, from De Soto.

Tramps are numerous here now.

Henry Rice has returned home from a visit to Doe Run.

A. J. Sheahan has quite a large paving contract.

Miss Alice Mills, of Brule, is visiting relatives here.

James Shea, of Wisconsin, is visiting relatives here now.

Moman Mills is going to farm this summer for H. Tolleson.

Clarence Whaley and Jim Wilburn, of Elvins, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. H. Tolleson, who has been very ill, is much better at this writing.

Walks Without Crutches.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgewick county, Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Bellevue Items.

Since my last communication to the REGISTER nothing of unusual interest has occurred to mar the characteristic quiet status of this heavenly vale.

Bro. LaTour filled his regular appointment at the Second Baptist church here on the second Saturday and Sunday. He has been employed as pastor of that church for the coming year, and as in the past, will "hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may."

Misses Artie and Lovie Bell joined the Second Baptist Church here on the second Saturday. They are good Christian young ladies, and they were thankfully received.

I notice our good friend W. H. Van Nort is a candidate for reelection to the office of Prosecuting Attorney of Iron county. Mr. Van Nort is a very deserving young man, worthy of confidence; conscientious and upright in all things, has many friends, and will get nearly every vote in Bellevue valley. Hope to see you "get there," William.

Dr. J. Q. Adams and wife spent last week in St. Louis.

Charles Fitzpatrick and wife are visiting at Lesterville.

Not long ago the writer visited Mr. James Moyer, and during my stay I was royally entertained by the members of the family; also, I visited the family of Mr. Benjamin Kidd, of Graniteville, and the same kind treatment which I received at the hands of Mr. M.'s family, was fully extended to me by Mr. Kidd's family. Of this once large family, only Mr. Kidd and two daughters now occupy the old home, the other members, excepting Mrs. K., who has been silently sleeping in the tomb for several years, being married and having happy homes of their own.

But such is life. Home! what sacred memories cling to the scenes of the old homestead! And as I sat in the home of Mr. K., how my mind untrammelled returned to the scenes and incidents connected with the old homestead, where I was reared, in the lovely prairies of Illinois. Of that once large family only two are now living, and another family now occupies the sacred home.

"You may break, you may shatter
The vase as you will,
But the scent of the flowers
Will cling to it still."

Clarence Kerlagon, who attended Washington University the past year, has returned home. Mr. C. informed me that he would complete the course in medicine in two more terms. He is a studious young man and will make his mark in the world.

Sol McColl is clerking in a dry goods store in Piedmont, and states that he is getting along nicely.

Misses Leota and Ethel Hawkins were in Ironton last week. A. G. Moyer and J. A. Ramsey were at Sawyer's Mill Sunday before last.

Mesdames Ramsey and Stewart visited Mrs. J. T. Patterson Thursday afternoon. P.

Herbine Cures.

Fever and Ague. A dose will usually stop a chill, a continuance always cures. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Texas, May 31, 1899, writes: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we have ever used for la grippe, bilious fever and malaria." 50c at Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Des Are Items.

We are still having winter. The farmers have been making good time this week planting potatoes and sowing oats. Wheat is looking well, especially where bone meal was used. John Crowley has the best crop on the creek; he is a good farmer.

Wm. Stevenson surprised his friends Tuesday night by getting married. On the same night a fine boy arrived at the home of John Stevenson. Mother and baby doing well.

Mrs. Graham, of Hendrickson, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Stevenson.

E. W. Graves has finished his water tank. The barrel, or tank, cost $57 in Louisville, Ky.

Dement Bros. have sold their saw mill to Harris & Co.

Lumber, hubs and ties are coming slow; farmers are busy and will not stop to haul.

We have had two dentists here for a week. They also went to Brunot.

Horace Morris and his brother left Wednesday for Doniphan, where they will make their home.

Cicero Lucy was up from Mill Springs Sunday.

Oso Miller and wife, nee Annie Morris, stopped off here Sunday on their way to the Cape, where they will make their future home.

Chas. Williams and wife, of De Soto, visited their parents Sunday.

W. T. O'Neal was down Sunday.

Mrs. L. Drew, of De Soto, visited her aunt, Mrs. Thos. Fitz, Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Lovelace is down with the measles; something strange, for she has been exposed several times before this. She is over 40 years old.

Tom Lovelace left last Sunday for South Dakota.

Mrs. Pate, of St. Louis, is visiting her son, Jas. Pate.

I am very sorry to see the Democrats falling out among themselves. The race is to bring out the strongest men, and we can all see that Joseph Folk is the strongest man out, and if the people endorse him why should we fight over it. The trouble with Hawes is that he killed himself at Clayton and St. Louis in the start, by bringing out the Indians and keeping honest men from the polls, besides he is backed up by such men as Kratz and Butler, who ought to be behind the bars to-day. Yes, I voted for Bill Gay, and don't regret it; he is a better man than half the Democrats in Ironton; and I expect to stay in the Folk band-wagon. I was at Annapolis and Sabula Saturday and found lots of Folk men there. Dr. Clark says he will not vote for Folk for he is a Republican, but will support the nominee; if he does he will certainly vote the Republican ticket next fall, for Folk will sure get there. But Doc., if you will look up his record, you will find he never was anything but a Democrat.

Sorry to see Hon. W. R. Edgar opposed to Folk, but if he is a good Democrat he will take the stump for him this fall.

I see Walter Hensley is quoted in the Republic as saying that he will take no more part in the Folk campaign.

Plowing, plowing, farmers are busy plowing and making garden. Our section men attended lodge in Ironton Saturday night.

John Thompson, who has been to Greenville for some time, has returned home.

Jim Shy, who has been visiting home folk for a week, returned Sunday to De Soto.

The peach and other blooming trees have withstood old Jack Frost and the cold weather so far, and no doubt we will have fruit after all.

The young folks celebrated Ethel Collins' and Omar Shy's seventeenth birthday at Mrs. Shy's, Wednesday night. Cake and coffee were served. They report a pleasant time.

John Thompson made a flying trip to Ironton, accompanied by his sister, Grace, Saturday.

Will Thomas, of Annapolis, was in town Wednesday.

Obituary.

Henry Gideon, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keathley, died April 3, 1904, aged fourteen months. The remains were taken to the Des Arc cemetery Monday. The parents have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep; A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes.

Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest; Whose waking is supremely blest! No fear, no woe shall dim that hour That manifests the Savior's power.
